INDICTMENT

COUNT ONE

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

On or about June 23, 2005, in Philadelphia, in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania,
the defendant

ANDRES CASTRO-ROSA,

an alien who had previously been removed from the United States on or about July 19, 2000, was found in the United States, having knowingly and unlawfully re-entered the United States without first applying to the United States Attorney General or his successor, the Secretary for Homeland Security (Title 6, United States Code, Sections 202(3), (4) and 557), for permission to reapply for admission, and without receiving in response the express consent of the Attorney General or his successor to reapply for admission.

In violation of Title 8, United States Code, Section 1326(a).

COUNT TWO

THE GRAND JURY FURTHER CHARGES THAT:

On or about June 23, 2005, in Philadelphia, in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, the defendant knowingly possessed an identification document with the intent that such document be used to defraud the United States, that is, he knowingly possessed Pennsylvania Identification Card number 28 325 292 in the name of P.C., an identification document issued by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the defendant then used this identification card to falsely claim that he was the individual P.C. to agents of the United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement who, as part of their duties, inquired about the defendant's identity.

In violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1028(a)(4).
